The Garvin House at Fort Webb has an indoor meeting room capacity of up to 60 people with tables, and 70 without tables. There are additional breakout rooms to separate into smaller groups, and don't forget the outdoor back deck, along with unlimited outdoor crowd capacity and plenty of free parking.

It is also a great place to host a wedding reception, bridal shower, or baby shower. Consider the Garvin House at Fort Webb when you plan your next family reunion, holiday gathering, retirement party or adult birthday party. The atmosphere and accommodation are also suitable for graduation dinners and class reunions.

When planning your next event, check out the Garvin House at Fort Webb. This quiet, country setting couldn't have a better location. It is within walking distance from the Bowling Green Country Club, and about two miles from downtown Bowling Green. Beech Bend Raceway is three miles down the road, and Bowling Green's enchanting River walk is just a mile away. IT is perfect for corporate meetings, retreats, seminars, training events and company picnics.

The Garvin House at Fort Webb has a handicap-accessible entrance ramp for your convenience. The house contains:

- One large meeting room
- One formal dining room/meeting room
- Two living rooms/meeting rooms
- Three bathrooms
- Bride Room & Groom Room Upstair
- Reception area & a large kitchen
